

LOIS SIMONDS HUNGATE EXTENSION FELLOWSHIP

This fund may be used to support a graduate student associateship or fellowship. Applicants will be considered for graduate programs in the following priority order: Agricultural and Extension Education (specialization, Extension Education), Agricultural Economics, and Human Ecology.

1. The funds available under this endowment may be used for an associateship or fellowship stipend.
2. The Director of Extension with the Chair of the Department is responsible for administering the funds.
3. Applications are to be submitted to the Chair of the Agricultural & Extension Education (AEE) Graduate Studies Committee.
4. The applicant must be admitted to the graduate program in Agricultural & Extension Education (AEE).
5. Applicants must use the application form available online.
6. Applicants may be asked to interview with a selection committee. Recipients may also be asked to meet with the donor, Lois Hungate, if it can be arranged.
7. The recipient will be notified of the award by the Director of Extension or Chair of the Department and will be informed of how and when the award funds may be accessed.
8. The amount and the number of awards to be made will be determined annually by the amount of funds available.
9. Awardees are expected to complete the graduate program which is supported by the award.
10. Awardees should send a note of thanks to the donor contacts to express appreciation for their support.

Donor contact:

Lois Hungate
8140 Township Line Road
Indianapolis, IN 46260