

VISIT DAYS

Agriscience Education

Thursday, September 26, 2013

Have you been 'tagged' to teach agriculture? Visit Ohio State on National Teach Ag Day to learn if this is the career for you! Visiting students will learn about the agriscience education major, student life, and tour campus.

Agricultural Communication

Friday, October 18, 2013

The department is sponsoring a communication contest, open to Ohio high school students. Submit a photo, news story, or video news story highlighting an activity at your high school. Awards will be presented at the Agricultural Communication Visit Day, where students will learn about the importance of communicating about agriculture and our environment to the general public, as well as tour campus and learn about Ohio State student life.

Community Leadership

Friday, October 25, 2013

Students interested in educating and leading organizations that promote positive change in our community will learn about the specialization areas (leadership and community and extension education), career opportunities, student life, and tour the Ohio State campus.
